

Miss Kelly's Creative Arts Resources and Activities

Creative Activities:

- Work on pattern using line shape and color, practice shapes
- Make your own alphabet abstract art. With crayon, draw letters in different places on a paper, jumble them up and use many different colors. Resist (watercolor) paint over top of the letters.
- Look at different flowers and their shapes. Practice drawing the different shapes of flowers/petals and using crayons, fill them in with multiple colors.
- Practice drawing different animal shapes such as Cat, Giraffe, Elephant, Horse, Eagle: Try to fill your whole page with your animal and draw details.
- Look at the trees outside your window or in a photograph and try your best to draw them as you see them.
- Turn on any type of music and draw/color/paint what you hear or feel in the music, fast, slow, emotions, happy, sad, excited.
- Use markers to color coffee filters and then add water and watch the colors spread.
- Create an art journal and doodle or sketch each day.
- Make instruments out of toilet or paper towel rolls. Decorate by gluing on construction paper or just using markers/paint/crayons. Cover the ends with plastic wrap or foil and fill tube with dried beans. Find everyday household objects to make drums or drumsticks. Practice tapping steady beats or rolling. Turn on any music and have an indoor concert or dance party.
